

STURGIS PUBLIC SCHOOLS

POSITION POSTING

SUPERINTENDENT

About the Area

Sturgis Public Schools is located in St. Joseph County in southwestern Michigan. The district consists of the City of Sturgis and the surrounding townships. The area is rural, yet it has a lot to offer that is not the norm for a city of its size. Sturgis offers the benefits of many parks, recreational areas and youth sports venues. Sturgis Public Schools partners with the City of Sturgis to offer many activities for the youth of the community. Sturges-Young Auditorium offers plays, music concerts and more on a continual basis. Downtown Sturgis is thriving with a mix of unique retail shops, restaurants and services. There are many downtown events over the course of a year.

About the District

Sturgis Public Schools offers athletic programs for all ages, art, music and foreign language education. In addition, Career Technical Education, dual enrollment for college credit and a district-wide career preparation program are available to the district's students. Students also have many extracurricular options. The district has one high school, one middle school, one 3-5 building, three K-2 buildings a Great Start Readiness Program, and alternative education.
